Meet our hand-stretched Turkish range

We start with a delicate, highly hydrated dough, that we ferment for longer than regular bread. Then we hand-stretch each roll and loaf to shape.

But the secret to our perfectly leavened bread is stone baking each loaf at a high heat, creating a distinctly open texture.

Meet our hand-raised sourdough range

Authentic sourdough can't be rushed, which is why we take our sweet time crafting every step.

We start with a sourdough culture that's been nurtured for over ten years.

Our dough is then fermented for 24 hours before being lovingly hand moulded by artisan bakers and baked to perfection.
